Astrology & Healing

An Introduction with Helen Tremeer

Every one of us inevitably carries through life a piece of pathology, psychic or somatic, which cannot be ‘healed away’. To this we have to relate as to a reminder of our limitations in being human.”
EDWARD C.WHITMONT, M.D

An opportunity for self-exploration using the symbolism of astrology.

We will focus on: Exploring our elemental balance as reflected in the natal chart and how this resonates with our bodies and susceptibilities

Parts of the body associated with each sign

The placement of Chiron, the wounded healer in our natal charts

You will receive: A copy of your own natal chart (birth details required for this – see below) with a key to reading the symbols and a table showing your personal elemental balance

Handouts: Document with information about the elements (fire, earth, air, water) with a list of the body parts, tissue salts, Bach flowers, colours and musical notes associated with each astrological sign, the healing colours which resonate with the planets and the different tastes (food, etc.) associated with the elements

Separate sheet with more information about taste and the elements

Special offer for those taking part in the workshop. This offer is free and recommended for participants. It is not compulsory you can still take part without your natal chart.

To take part in this workshop it is recommended that you get in touch with me to arrange for a copy of your natal chart to work with. I will need your birth details: time (as near as you can get it), place (nearest town) and your date of birth.

This offer is time limited. To allow me the time to draw up your natal chart which you will then use during the workshop please get in touch by the weekend 29th/30th April.

I have been working with astrology for over 20 years.
My interest in all-things-healing led to subsequent training in hands-on healing, flower essences and homeopathy.
I am currently doing further healing training in therapeutic shamanism.
