

ATH CPPD Approved Workshops and Courses

APPLICATION

Submission for approval is free to ATH Members.
This does not mean your course will be granted approval.

A processing fee of £50 should accompany this application if submitted by a non-member.

In order for us to consider including your course or workshop as an approved CPPD training for the ATH, please can you provide the following information (ATH members need only provide 2-5):

1. CV, including background, training, experience and qualifications of the facilitator(s), with photocopies of any certificates/diplomas received.
Your contact details, name, address, phone and Website if you have one.
2. Syllabus of the proposed workshop/course, outlining subject matter, delivery and approach; if the facilitator is proposing multiple workshops on a similar theme, please provide a template syllabus that will be used throughout, plus examples of additional material that may be covered, and explain how that material will be woven into the existing template.
3. Have you run this course before or is it the first time?
4. Number of contact hours of the workshop/course.
5. Current fee for attendance of the workshop/course, and if there are any reductions in cost for ATH members.
6. Whether handouts and materials are provided.
7. If you are not an ATH Member, please include a reference or recommendation from an existing member, or alternatively recommendation by previous participants
8. We would prefer possibility of the attendance of the workshop by an ATH Member (preferably a Core Group member) is required before final approval or access by Zoom or a video of your course.

This information will help us to make our decision.

Final approval is granted by the ATH Core Group.

Once approved you will get your Certificate of Approval permission for the course or workshop. You will also get a free listing on the ATH website CPPD list of approved course, plus distribution of any advertising for the particular workshops/courses.

Please note you will need to provide your own advertising.
